Day 2 - Byblos

Morning free
Lunch on your own

Early afternoon proceed to visit Byblos. According to Phoenician tradition the city was founded by the god El, making Byblos one of the oldest continuously inhabited cities in the world. It was in Byblos where the first linear alphabet, ancestor of all modern alphabets was invented. The sarcophagus of Byblos' king Ahiram, now in the national museum, bears the oldest known Phoenician inscription. Byblos was also the centre of the Adonis cult, the god of vegetation who dies in the winter and is renewed each spring.

Day 3 - Baalbek & Ksara

Morning hotel check out.

Proceed for our last visit the amazing Roman ruins of Baalbek. Located in the Bekaa valley, Baalbeck makes up one of the largest and best-preserved corpus of Roman architecture ever found. In the Jupiter Temple, six of the fifty-four giant columns that originally surrounded the sanctuary still survive. On our way we will pass by the Ksara cellars. Built during the Roman period and covered by sand for centuries, these Cellars were found by Jesuits by mistake in 1898 (they were hunting down a fox that was eating their chickens). Ksara is now home of to a world famous winery.

Lunch is served at the winery.

Free evening.
